Where to Stay – Other Options

Cyburbia.org Forum

If you are looking to find a fellow admitted student to share a room with you, we have set up a forum for the Bloustein Open House at Cyburbia.org to help; check it out at: <http://www.cyburbia.org/forums/showthread.php?t=54131>

Student Hosting Opportunities

As an alternative, we are inviting admitted students to stay with a current Bloustein student graduate student during their open house visit. We have a limited number of spaces for the night of Tuesday, April 4th, offered on a first come, first serve basis. Please let us know if you would like to be matched with a host by selecting the appropriate option when completing your RSVP form. Be sure to let us know if you want to stay with a host student by Tuesday, March 28th when you RSVP to the Open House.
