

Application for Graduate Certificate in Transportation Studies

A Joint Offering of The Edward J. Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy and The School of Engineering at Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey

(Please note: The Certificate in Transportation Studies is available only to matriculating students enrolled in a graduate program at the Bloustein School or in the School of Engineering.)

Personal Information

Full Legal Name: Last Name		First Name	M.I.
Email Address		RU 9-Digit ID	Telephone
Local Mailing Address	Street Address	City	State	Zip Code

Degree Program in which you are currently enrolled

Certificate Requirements

Graduate students interested in pursuing the certificate in transportation studies apply to the co-director of the program from their respective unit. In general, students in good academic standing pursuing a graduate-level degree will be admitted to the certificate program. Students must exhibit a proficiency in basic statistical skills and quantitative methods, as demonstrated by successful completion of appropriate undergraduate or graduate courses. Please use the space below to list all relevant courses you have completed that will demonstrate appropriate proficiency in basic statistical and quantitative methods, as it relates to the Certificate in Transportation Studies.

Bloustein School courses (include course number)	Grade received	Engineering School courses (include course number)	Grade received

Methods requirement	Grade received

Contact Information

School of Engineering students please contact:
 Prof. Hani Nassif
 Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering
 623 Bowser Road, Busch Campus
 848-445-4414
nassif@rci.rutgers.edu

Bloustein School students please contact:
 Prof. Robert Noland, Director
 Alan M. Voorhees Transportation Center
 33 Livingston Ave., Room 449
 Civic Square Building (downtown NB)
 848-932-2859
rnoland@rutgers.edu