

DUAL DEGREE BETWEEN MASTER OF CITY AND REGIONAL PLANNING (MCRP) AND MASTER OF PUBLIC INFORMATICS (MPI)

MCRP/MPI

The 48-credit Master of City and Regional Planning (MCRP) and the 36-credit Master of Public Informatics (MPI) can be combined into a 60-credit MCRP/MPI dual degree option. To complete the option, students must be separately accepted to each degree pathway.

The MCRP degree requires a set of core, concentration and elective courses. The list of core, concentration, and elective courses for the MCRP degree may be found at:

<https://bloustein.rutgers.edu/graduate/uppd/mcrp/>

Dual degree students starting in the MCRP must complete 12 MPI-eligible credits beyond their 48-credit requirement for the MCRP, totaling 60 credits. Furthermore, all students must make certain in their course of study they include the following courses:

- 34:816:502 Theory & Practice of Public Informatics
- 34:816:633 Big Data Analytics
- 34:970:590 Graphical Communication for Planners or equivalent
- 34:970:659 Advanced Graphical Communication for Planners or equivalent
- 34:970:591 Intro to GIS for Planning or equivalent
- 34:970:592 Topics in GIS

The MPI degree requires 30 credits of core courses and 6 credits of electives. Dual degree students starting in the MPI must complete 24 MCRP-eligible credits beyond their 36-credit requirement for the MPI degree, totaling 60 credits. Furthermore, all students must make certain in their course of study they include the following courses and satisfy requirements:

- 34:970:501 History and Theory of Planning
- 34:970:509 Urban Economy and Spatial Patterns
- 34:970:517 Survey of Planning Law Principles
- Take graduate planning studios within core (instead of policy practicums)
- Additional MCRP eligible elective courses as appropriate and needed
- Declare a planning concentration

Students following these flight plans will be awarded degrees consecutively, at the time the requirements for each degree are completed. It is important to note that there are multiple, possible flight plans and each should be directed/guided by a combination of faculty advisor, program director and student services staff.

HOW TO APPLY

Application Options

Admission to the dual MCRP/MPI degree program is highly selective and requires simultaneous, separate applications to and acceptance by each program. A total of 60 credits must be completed in a minimum of two and a half years of full-time study. Students may take up to 12 credits per semester, and may use the summers or additional part-time semesters to complete the required 60 credits. Part-time study plans are individually arranged to suit students' circumstances.

Current MCRP students wishing to add the dual program relationship to their current degree program should first consult their academic advisor and program director. After doing so, meeting with Courtney Culler, Assistant Director for Graduate Student Services at courtney.culler@rutgers.edu to map out the application process, finish your flight plan and timeline would be your final step. For new student applicants to the university, and to discuss the advantages of the dual degree program, please contact Lynn Astorga, Assistant Director for Student Recruitment at (848) 932-2388 or lastorga@rutgers.edu.

Application Process

To start an application, visit the admissions website at: gradstudy.rutgers.edu and select "Apply Now" on the upper right side of the page. For current MCRP students, apply to the MPI degree program and indicate in your personal statement your intention to pursue the dual option. For new student applicants to the university, apply simultaneously to both degrees and again indicate your intention to pursue the dual option in both personal statements.

Applications sometimes require support documents that may not a part of the electronic application. Resume/CV, unofficial transcripts are some examples. Once you have finished your application and have received your RUID, you can upload documents.

or if need be post mail them to:
Office of Graduate and Professional Admissions
Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey
