

FALL 2019 GRADUATE STUDENT ORIENTATION

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 2019

Program Agenda

- 7:30 a.m. Informal Continental Breakfast (Outside Forum, 1st Floor, Bloustein School)
- Enjoy coffee and casual conversation with peers prior to beginning the program
- 8:30 a.m. Welcome and Overview (Forum, 1st Floor, Bloustein School)
- Words of welcome from the Dean
 - Introductions of Deans, program directors
 - Announcements and brief review of agenda
- 9:30 a.m. Orientation to Academic Programs
Overview of classes, degrees, faculty, concentrations, advising procedures, requirements
- Urban Planning Masters Program Orientation, Special Events Forum (1st Floor)
 - Public Policy Masters Program Orientation, Room 112
 - Public Informatics Masters Program Orientation, Room TBD
 - Health Administration Masters Program Orientation, Room 261
 - Ph.D. Program Orientation, Room 170
- 11:00 a.m. Student Organizations Meeting/Session (Events Forum, 1st Floor)
- BGSA, others welcome new students, talk about student life and governance
- 12:00 p.m. Lunch and Conversation (Rooms 112 and 113 outside Forum)
- For new and continuing students, faculty
- 1:15 p.m. Orientation to Student Services and Information Technology
Student/Academic/Computing Orientation, Special Events Forum (1st Floor)
- Labs overview, accounts, technology, student services items including parking, building slash cards, etc.
- 2:30-5 p.m. Student Advising Sessions with Faculty
- Advising sessions may be pre-arranged with individual professors, although most faculty will be available throughout the day.
- 3:30 p.m. Research Center/Institute Fair (Rooms 113 and 112 outside forum)
- Visit tables and learn about various research centers and institutes
- 4:30 p.m.
to ? Student/Faculty/Staff Reception
(Side courtyard, off first floor - rain site Forum Lobby)
- Reception for current and new students, faculty, staff - food and drink