

Edward J. Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy

Undergraduate Program in Public Policy
Learning Outcomes

September 2019

The following learning outcomes reflect our program-wide objectives in public policy, which are reflected in our required core coursework.

Upon completion of the Bachelor of Science with a major in Public Policy, our students will be able to:

- articulate and apply a public service perspective;
- understand theories on public policy formation and implementation, including how policies address various contemporary public problems;
- understand the need for inclusion, diversity, equity, and access in public service and policy;
- analyze, synthesize, think critically, solve problems & make decisions;
- understand academic theories and best practices on public or non-profit management and leadership; and,
- apply leadership and teamwork skills to professional settings across sectors.