APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS
2020-2021 BLOUSTEIN HONORS RESEARCH PROGRAM

Please be sure to review the information session slides on the BHRP webpage before initiating the application process.

I. Two essays
   a. Essay #1 (1-2 pages): Statement of research interests, which should include:
      i. Tentative topic area/population of interest
      ii. Names of proposed mentors and your reasons for choosing them • Important: Please do not contact potential mentors before the admissions process is complete. Faculty are unable to commit to mentor applicants before the cohort is chosen. The mentor-mentee match will be made for those who are admitted into the program.
      iii. Proposed methods
         • Quantitative or qualitative
         • Primary or secondary
   b. Essay #2 (1 page): Statement of educational and career goals, including how BHRP would fit into these goals

II. Two evaluation checklists from:
   a. Research Methods instructor
   b. Writing instructor

III. Unofficial transcripts for all colleges attended

IV. Letter of recommendation from a full-time Bloustein faculty member

V. A statement explaining your academic record and how you have overcome these issues (only for those applying under the alternate route)
