

FALL 2020 UNDERGRADUATE NEW STUDENT INFORMATION SESSION

Wednesday, August 26, 2020
11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.; Zoom Meeting

Program Agenda

- 10:45 a.m. Check-In – Log into Zoom meeting for attendance
- 11:00 a.m. Welcome and Overview
Professor Marc Weiner, Executive Director for Undergraduate Programs and Steve Weston, Assistant Dean for Student and Academic Services
- Introduction of Deans, Faculty and Programs
 - Announcements and brief review of agenda
- 11:15 a.m. Orientation to the Bloustein School - Undergraduate Student Services Staff
- Overview of new courses, degrees, certificates, advising procedures, requirements, academic policies and procedures, facilities
- 12:00 p.m. General Question and Answer
- 12:15 p.m. Orientation to Academic Programs (Breakout Sessions)
- Overview of programs, fields of study and possible careers
 - Health Administration Professor Michael McDonough
 - Planning and Public Policy Professor Alan Cander
 - Public Health Professor Amy Abruzzi
 - Public Policy Professor Andrea Hetling
 - Urban Planning and Design Professor Juan Ayala
- 1:00 p.m. Individual Advising Sessions (Optional – Sign-up required)
- If you would like to meet with an academic advisor, be sure to sign up for an advising session when you register for the event. You will be assigned a session between 1:00 p.m. and 3:00 p.m. Sign-ups will be accepted on the day of the event as availability allows. Advisors are available at other times on days following the session.

Orientation/New Student Information Website includes pre-recorded welcomes from our Deans, Internship Coordinators, and our school student organizations. Be sure to check them out!