

English Language Support Conversation Group

English Language assistance is available for our international students to help develop essential skills and resources needed to be successful. We offer peer support to help with language issues that might interfere with the understanding of course material. Please join our Conversation Group (weekly) and/or drop by during office hours for class work and writing consultation.

Conversation Group

Date and time TBD. Join us to practice conversation. We will discuss everyday themes, current events, and exciting topics related to our studies. Please feel free to bring your own topics and discussion questions. You are required to attend this group each week.

Writing/Study Assistance – Office Hours

ESL Coach: Nathan Satish and Ooha Uppalapati

Please stop by Webex office hours and say hello to Nathan and Ooha, both graduate students here at the Bloustein School. Attending weekly meetings and utilizing office hours throughout the semester gives you an opportunity to discuss class work, practice studying skills, go over reading material, organize presentations, and review and edit writing assignments They are excited to help and look forward to meeting you!
